

Application Process For House Co-ordinators

INTEREST INDICATED: A request is made for consideration.

INFORMATION SHARING: Preliminary information* about Partners in Hope and the House of Hope is provided in writing and perhaps in an information interview.

INTERACTION PERIOD: A period of observation for several months as the interested person participates in Partners in Hope activities, interacts with men and women who come to activities, participates in meetings, church, social functions to establish.

INTERVIEW: An initial interview is held with the director that includes: Background information of the candidates' personal history particularly as it relates to addiction, ministry to hurting individuals, Christian faith and growth, previous ministry experience, a sense of God's call to this kind of ministry, employment history, employment plan alongside coordinator's role, vision, personal growth/accountability plan, etc.

APPLICATION SUBMITTED AND REVIEW BY BOARD COMMITTEE REFERENCE CHECKS COMPLETED

FORMAL INTERVIEW: By Board Committee

TIME TABLE

*Current information package includes:

Partners in Hope Mission Statement
Partners in Hope Ministry Outline
House of Hope Principles and Practices
Co-ordinator Job Description
Day to Day Duties of House Co-ordinator
Relationship Building Framework